The world most welcoming countries-as voted by you

Top of the list sits Ethiopia, a profoundly beautiful East African country with a history that stretches back many thousands of years. It was never colonized, so the tribal customs and hospitable traditions you can see here are largely just as they've always been. Take the Ethiopian coffee ceremony: the women of the household meticulously roast grind and boil the aromatic beans, before presenting three consecutive cups of exceptionally fresh coffee to their guests. The process can last for hours, but it's considered a real mark of friendship.

Ethiopian spends big at Paris Airshow

Wins SKYTRAX Award

By Kaleyssa Bekalo

Ethiopian Airlines stunned the aviation industry this week by placing a record number of passenger and cargo aircraft from leading global manufacturers at the Paris Airshow, a renowned aviation exhibition held every two years in Le Bourget Airport, Paris, France.

The largest African carrier placed a total of 27 aircraft orders from Airbus, Boeing and Bombardier with a total value of 4.8 billion dollars at least price. On June 23 Ethiopian announced that it placed an order for 10 additional Airbus A330-300 aircraft, enabling further development to its fast expanding long-haul route network. The ten A330-300 Airbus narrow jetliners are valued at three billion dollars at least prices.

Last June, Ethiopian Airlines became the first African carrier to operate the A350 when it took delivery of the first of 12 aircraft in order. Today the carrier operates a fleet of four A350s, two of

Ethiopian to host ICAO Cargo Forum

ADDIS ABABA - Ethiopian Airlines announced that it will host the ICAO Global Air Cargo Development Forum with the theme: "Action for the Sustainable Development of Air Cargo in Africa", to be held at the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa (UNECA) conference hall from 27th to 29th of June 2017.

According to Ethiopian press release issued recently, the forum is anticipated to allow policy-makers, air transport regulators, representatives from the aviation industry and other stakeholders, to review progress towards implementation of the Lomé Declaration, identify challenges and opportunities and building on the decisions of the 39th ICAO Assembly.

"As the largest cargo operator in Africa, we are pleased to host this vital communication platform, which builds upon the Declaration on the development of Air Cargo in Africa and commit a roadmap for priority actions," said Tewolde Gebremariam, Ethiopian Airlines Group CEO.

"I believe, this forum will create an ample opportunity for participants to see the immense potential Ethiopian Cargo and Logistics Services has developed to ensure easy cargo movement across the continent and beyond, while enjoying side visits to the beautiful natural and historic attractions at the Land of Origins".

The forum is also expected to contribute to the cooperative activities between ICAO, the World Customs Organization (WCO) and the International Air Cargo Association (TIACA).

Ethiopian Airlines has availed 15 percent discount on business class and 12 per cent discount on economy class fares to all participants departing from all Ethiopian on line cities to Addis Ababa travelling to attend the 2nd ICAO Meeting on Air Cargo Development.

Ethiopian Airlines earlier this year hosted ICAO Global Aviation Training and TRAINAIR PLUS Symposium with the theme: "Together, Enhancing Training to Build Capacity".

Ethiopian to inaugurate new cargo terminal

ADDIS ABABA (ENA) - Addis Ababa June 09/2017 The Ethiopian Airlines is going to inaugurate a new cargo terminal on the sideline of the second ICAO Global Air Cargo Development Forum to be hosted by the airline this month.

The inauguration of its state of the art Cargo Terminal-II, will position the national flag carrier at the top in the continent in terms of cargo service.

Group CEO Ethiopian Airlines, Tewolde Gebremariam said: "The new Cargo Terminal-II combined with our existing Terminal-I will give us a total tonnage capacity of around one million per annum which is the largest in the continent of Africa."

Covering a total area of 150,000 m², the new Cargo Terminal includes dry and perishable cargo terminals, fully automated elevating transport vehicle, among others.

It is also fitted with different climate chambers for storage and handling of temperature sensitive products such as fresh agricultural products and pharmaceuticals.

"Infrastructure development being one of the four pillars of our fast, profitable and sustainable growth strategic roadmap, Vision 2025, we have been making massive investments in infrastructure projects to modernize and expand our cargo facilities at a total cost of USD 150 million" Tewolde said.

Upon completion of the second phase, which adds 600, 000 tonnes annual uplift capacity, Ethiopian Cargo and Logistics Services will have one of the world's largest cargo terminals - a capability equivalent to cargo terminals in Amsterdam Schiphol, Singapore Changi, or Hong Kong, the CEO said.

This investment along with the eight modern freighters will create adequate air cargo transporting capacity for the fast growing export and import demand of the continent.

Ethiopian Cargo and Logistics Services operates eight freighters to 39 global freighter destinations in Africa, the Gulf, Middle East, Asia and Europe with an average daily uplift capacity of 650 tons on top of the belly hold capacity of 150 tons to over 95 destinations globally.

It was recalled that the Ethiopian Cargo and Logistics Services has recently won 'Cargo Airline Award for Network Development' at Brussels; 'African Cargo Airline of the Year' among others.

Ethiopian to open new cargo terminal

Ethiopian Airlines said it will inaugurate a state-of-the-art cargo terminal-II this month.

According to Ethiopian, the new terminal will be inaugurated during the three-day ICAO Global Air Cargo Development Forum, scheduled to take place from June 27-29.

Covering a total area of 150,000 square meter, the new hub includes facilities such as dry cargo terminal warehouse, perishable cargo terminal with cool chain storage, fully automated with latest technology ETV, G+2 office building, apron area which accommodates 5 additional big freighter aircraft, sufficient truck parking apron.

It is also fitted with different climate chambers for storage and handling of temperature sensitive products such as fresh agricultural products, pharmaceuticals, life Science products.

Group CEO Ethiopian Airlines, Tewolde Gebremariam, remarked: "Infrastructure development being one of the four pillars of our fast, profitable and sustainable growth strategic roadmap, vision 2025, we have been making massive investments in infrastructure projects to modernize and expand our cargo facilities at a total cost of 150 million US dollars."

Ethiopian wins 2017 'African Airline' of the Year' Award

BY TSEGAY HAGOS

ADDIS ABABA - Africa's largest airline group, the Ethiopian Airlines has won the African Aviation 'African Airline of the Year' Award for 2017, for the second year in a row, during the 26th Annual Air Finance Africa Conference & Exhibition held in Johannesburg, South Africa.

The award was presented to Ethiopian in recognition of its continued rapid growth, profitability and its outstanding contribution to aviation development in Africa.

Receiving the Award, Meseret Bitew, Acting Chief Financial Officer, Ethiopian Airlines, said the Award would be a testimony for its commitment to serve Africa.

"The commendable success of Ethiopian Airlines attributes to the visionary leadership of Ethiopian management and hard work of thousands of Ethiopia employees who work around the clock with unity of purpose" he said adding "Mobility and air connectivity being the economic engine of growth and development, we shall continue to play vital roles in connecting African countries with their major trading partners around the world and realize an economically liberal Africa"

While announcing the Award, African Aviation CEO, Mr Nick Fadugba said Ethiopian Airlines has further expanded its route network, modernized its fleet, inaugurated three new aircraft maintenance hangars, as well as a new world-class in flight catering facility and has strengthened its airline joint ventures in Africa over the last 12 months.

Fadugba hailed Ethiopian Airlines for its record financial turnover and profitability in spite of various industry challenges and currently, the airline is well on track to exceed the goals of its Vision 2025 Strategy.

Ethiopian is a multi-award winning airline: Airline of the Year Award, for the fifth consecutive year, by African Airlines Association (AFRAA), SkyTrax World Airline Award for Best Airline Staff in Africa, Best African Cargo Airline of the Year Award, and Passenger Choice Award for Best Airline in Africa are few to mention.

Nation excelling in air transportation

BY WAKUMA KEBAMA

The contribution of well developed transportation system to supporting the growing investment is increasingly high since the sector is very critical for the proper performance of the other sectors. This needs should be given a global priority when economic opportunities have been increasingly related to the mobility of people, goods, knowledge, technology and the like.

Recognizing the economic importance of the transportation sector in meeting the development goals, the Ethiopian government has been investing a great deal in the sector for more than a decade of decades. The stable high economic development the country registered can be attributed to the well established transportation facilities.

The transportation system of the nation in land, water and air has been improving to the high extent it can effectively and efficiently support the growing economy. This will enable the transportation system continued

Ethiopian, Boeing and Non-Profit Organizations to carry out humanitarian flight

ADDIS ABABA - Ethiopian Airlines joined hands with Boeing and three non-profit organizations (NGOs) to deliver 6.5 tons of humanitarian aids for St. Paul Hospital and Bahar Dar University College of Medicine & Health Sciences while taking the delivery of additional B787 aircraft.

In a statement sent to The Ethiopian Herald, the airlines indicated that Ethiopian and Boeing have synergized with Conscience International (CI), Horn of Africa Neonatal Development Services and Seattle Alliance Outreach (SAO) organizations for the deliveries.

Ethiopian Group CEO Tewelde Gebremariam said: "For us, fulfilling our corporate social responsibilities is as important as our focus on pure business performance. This round of our humanitarian delivery is a continuation of our commendable collaboration with Boeing that served as a source of vital service for our community and neighboring countries as well."

Moreover, the airlines named its 18th B787 after Mother Teresa, who is always remembered as an icon of philanthropy, he said.

Ethiopian will continue contributing on the socio-economic development of the country by relentlessly delivering on its corporate social responsibilities.

"On the other hand, pursuant to our fleet modernization plan and to further meet the ever growing demand of our customers, we are in bold move of modernizing and expanding our fleet, networks and facilities," he said.

Hence, this move will further ensure unmatched combination of operational flexibility, efficiency, and passenger comfort that will allow Ethiopian to achieve its goal to be the leading Aviation Group in Africa and a leading global airline."

Currently, Ethiopian has 18 B787 in operation, deployed on its long haul passenger routes, and will receive the 19th by the end of this month, ferrying medical equipment and supplies for St. Paul's Hospital.

Ethiopian takes the lion's share of the pan-African passenger and cargo, operating the youngest and most modern fleet to over 95 international destinations across five continents.
